

3T Medical Systems announces appointment of Mark Randall as Executive Vice President of Sales and Chief Commercial Officer

April 16th, 2018, Canton, MI, USA

3T Medical Systems, Inc, a private medical products company in Canton, MI, today announces the appointment of Mark Randall to the position of Executive Vice President and Chief Commercial Officer of 3T Medical Sales. Mark Randall will be responsible for managing the vision and structure of the sales organization to ensure the effective fulfillment of our sales objectives with the infrastructure necessary to support growth.

“Mark brings experience and a proven track record of success in leading sales organizations focused on orthopedic and blood management medical products, which will be invaluable in meeting our sales goals and objectives”, said Jack Kelley, 3T Medical’s Chief Executive Officer. “Mark’s appointment comes at an important time for 3T Medical, as we prepare for significant growth and expansion of our commercial operations to meet evolving customer needs.”

Mark has a strong history of developing winning organizational cultures, focusing on exceeding customer expectations, recruiting and training highly productive professionals, and leading with integrity. Before joining 3T Medical, Mark ran an independent distributorship, Zimmer-Randall Associates which he managed for 25 years. During this time, he took a team of five sales associates and three operational staff and grew to a team of eight managers, eighty-five sales associates and forty-five operational staff. He created a culture that provided a way for the company to prosper and grow in sales during those years from $8 Million to $110 Million.

Mr. Randall received his Bachelor’s in Accounting at Boston College.
